Objectives

- To enhance a cooperative spirit among students through collaborative activities under a harmonious environment.

- To strengthen students' self-directed learning skills and strategies for learning through the implementation of self-directed learning activities with the focus on setting goals and self-reflection.

- To conduct STEAM related tasks and activities after reading across the curriculum, non-fiction passages and books.

- To enhance students' speaking confidence as well as presentation and multi-media skills.