A Diary about my Trip

17th May, 2025

Sunny

It was a wonderful day! Since today was Saturday, my parents brought my older sister and me to two scenic spots. I could not sleep last night because I was too excited. I even woke up at four o'clock in the morning! I quickly chose the most beautiful dress I have. As it was too early, no one in my home was awake, so I cooked breakfast by myself. Then, I ate it and waited for my family to wake up.

After an hour, my dad drove us in his car to the first scenic spot, The Peak. At nine o'clock, we arrived. We took photos and enjoyed the beautiful views of Hong Kong. We stayed there for an hour. The view was so pretty and it was a little bit windy. After that, Dad drove us to Central. He parked the car and took us on a ferry to the Avenue of Stars. It was my first time there. There were so many objects about famous stars from the past. We could see the sea view as we walked along the avenue.

Finally, we ate at a restaurant and had lunch together. The food was tasty. My sister loved it very much. In the evening, my dad drove us to Causeway Bay. We walked to Victoria Harbour to enjoy the sea view. We had dinner at a Japanese restaurant.

I enjoyed the day very much. I learnt lots of fun facts about famous stars from the past. I want to be a famous star in the future too!
