

A Tornado in Okinawa

My holiday in Japan was fascinating until today's disaster. I went on a trip to Okinawa with my parents. I was looking forward to the trip! I wanted to try surfing at the beach too! We arrived at Okinawa airport at ten o'clock early in the morning. My dad rented a car and drove us to a five-star hotel excitedly.

In the afternoon, we went to a stunning beach! When I jumped out of the car, I was shocked. It has a beautiful sea and soft, light sand. Dad bought me a yellow and blue surfing board, so I was thrilled. I quickly grabbed the surfboard and ran to the sea. Mom was sunbathing while Dad was reading a magazine on a hammock. They felt relaxed.

After playing for hours, we were exhausted. On the way back to the hotel, something terrible happened. A raging tornado occurred. The clouds turned black, and the wind was blowing stronger and stronger! Dad shouted, "Quick! Hop to the car, we need to get back to the hotel!" Dad drove as fast as he could to escape from the tornado. Meanwhile we almost got back at the hotel. The tornado picked up all the things by its path, like horses, cows, sheep and houses. It was so terrifying!

This natural disaster gave me the fright of my life. What a frightening tornado! I hope I will never go through such a hair-raising experience again!
