A Visit to the Film Studio

Last Sunday, Jane visited a film studio. She was very excited because it was her first time seeing how people made a film. She saw one of her favourite actors, Jackie Chan, who was filming the latest action film. She was extremely surprised to meet him!

Then, Jane met a costume designer, a cameraman and a film director in a room. They are taking a movie. Jane asked them with a sweet voice, “Can I act with Jackie Chan? Please!” The cameraman scanned Jane and whispered something to the director. A few minutes later, the director said happily, “Yes, this girl can be an extra!” Jane was over the moon to act with Jackie Chan!

In the dressing room, the costume designer helped Jane to dress up. She really looked like an ancient child. “Yay! I can act with Jackie Chan!” Jane said excitedly. The costume designer was glad for her and clapped her hands.

Finally, Jane added with Jackie Chan. And Jackie Chan thought Jane acted so well. He said, “You acted very well girl! I hope you can be an actress when you grow up.” Jane had an unforgettable day. She would never forget this day.
